Therefore, the participant exempts the Organizer from any liability regarding any health problems resulting from his/her participation in the NIT PIRINEU@2020.

Registered participants understand that they participate in the event voluntarily and under their own responsibility. Thus, they exempt the Organizer from any liability and will not press any charges or file any liability claims against the Organizer, its collaborators, sponsors or other participants.

To this end, when collecting their race bib, participants must submit the document "Disclaimer and certificate of physical fitness" duly printed and signed.

If a participant does not bring the disclaimer duly printed and signed when collecting the race bib, he/she must sign it in situ before collecting the race bib.

For runners under legal age, their parents or legal tutors must sign this document.

Article 4. Required and recommended technical gear

Using the appropriate gear is essential to enjoy trainings and mountain races with maximal safety. When planning their gear, sky runners must consider all potential unexpected events that may happen in mountains, such as hypothermia due to slowing or stopping pace, overexertion, bad weather, fog, wind, low temperatures... etc.

There is a dedicated “required technical gear” section in the official web of SALOMON ULTRA PIRINEU@2020 exclusively aimed at explaining why some items are required and others recommended, as well as to clarify doubts about them.

To run the race, all runners without exception must carry the items labeled as required from the list at the “required technical gear” section on the web www.ultrapirineu.com. On Friday, October 4th, the Organization will inform if some of these items are finally NOT mandatory during a particular schedule and/or during the entire race. The decision will be taken according to the most recent weather forecast.

Runners must either wear or carry the required material in their backpack.

There will be general or random inspections of required clothing and equipment at any point throughout the course, from start to finish (both included). Not carrying a required item entails immediate disqualification.

Article 5. Checkpoints, aid stations and assistance

- Participants must follow the marked course without disobeying any signs and must stop at all checkpoints.
- Participants must respond to the requests and questions posed by a course steward, medical equipment or aid station supervisor at checkpoints or at any other point throughout the race.
- Any runner who wishes to drop out of the race must personally notify his/her decision to withdraw to the race staff in checkpoints.

Article 6. Cloakroom service and parking

Participants may leave their car free of charge at La Molina cable car parking lot, located just beside the race start area.

A cloakroom service will be available at the race bib collection area. Participants may leave their gear inside a bag or backpack not bigger than 20L. The Organizer will transport the bags to Niu de l'Àliga for runners to pick them up upon finishing the race.

The Organizer will not check the contents of the bags or whether they are properly closed. Therefore, the Organizer will not respond to any complaints about damage of bags or their contents, or for any loss of contents. It is recommended to not leave valuables or fragile items in the bags. Runners should ensure the bag remains closed at all times by reinforcing its closing (for example with a string or bridle).

Article 7. Penalties and complaints

In order to implement the rules and regulations that govern this event, the following persons will be authorized to apply penalties: course stewards, physicians, checkpoint supervisors and aid station supervisors.
