

REGULATIONS NIT PIRINEU®2017

The NIT PIRINEU®2017 is a NIGHT vertical kilometre run organized by Pangea Attitude, La Molina Sports Club and La Molina Ski Station. It will take place on Friday, September 22nd 2017.

The race will start at 20:30h from La Molina cable-car (Alp), and it will finish at the mountain shelter “Niu de l’Àliga” (meaning Eagle’s Nest, in the municipality of Bagà), covering a distance of 5km and 860m of positive elevation gain.

The climb up to Niu de l’Àliga will be timed. Runners will have a limit of 1h 30min to complete it.

A “botifarrada” dinner (typical Catalan sausage) will be offered to runners at the finish line in Niu de l’Àliga.

Afterwards, participants may descend by foot or by cable-car (if the weather permits its operation).

Requirements

The minimal age for taking part in the NIT PIRINEU®2017 is 16 years reached during the year of the race (i.e. until 31 December 2017).

Participants under 18 years must present their ID and an authorization by a parent or legal tutor to collect their race bib.

Required equipment

A list of required and recommended equipment can be found at the “required technical gear” section on the web www.ultrapirineu.com. This list may change according to the weather forecast.

The definitive list of required equipment will be published on Friday morning according to the last weather forecast. IT IS VERY IMPORTANT THAT ALL PARTICIPANTS CHECK THE LIST OF REQUIRED EQUIPMENT ON THE WEB BEFORE THE RACE START.

The Organizers may suspend, modify or shorten the course in response to bad weather conditions.

Disclaimer and certificate of physical fitness

The act of registering for the NIT PIRINEU®2017 entails the acceptance of its terms and conditions by all participants. It also implies that the participant has the adequate preparation and that he/she is aware of the hard geographical and weather conditions one may encounter throughout its course. Therefore, the participant exempts the Organizer from any liability regarding any health problems resulting from his/her participation in the NIT PIRINEU®2017.

Registered participants understand that they participate in the event voluntarily and under their own responsibility. Thus, they exempt the Organizer from any liability and will not press any charges or file any liability claims against the Organizer, its collaborators, sponsors or other participants.

To this end, when collecting their race bib, participants must submit the document "Disclaimer and certificate of physical fitness" duly printed and signed.

A printable version of the document can be downloaded from www.ultrapirineu.com.

If a participant does not bring the disclaimer duly printed and signed when collecting the race bib, he/she must sign it in situ before collecting the race bib.

For runners under legal age, their parents or legal tutors must sign this document.

Checkpoints, aid stations and assistance

- Participants must follow the marked course without disobeying any signs and must stop at all checkpoints.
- Participants must respond to the requests and questions posed by a course steward, physician, nurse or aid station supervisor at checkpoints or at any other point throughout the race.
- Any runner who wishes to drop out of the race must personally notify his/her decision to withdraw to the race staff in aid stations or checkpoints.

Cloakroom service and parking

Participants may leave their car free of charge at La Molina cable car parking lot, located just beside the race start area.

A cloakroom service will be available at the race bib collection area. Participants may leave their gear inside a bag or backpack not bigger than 20L, properly identified with a label provided by the staff. The Organizer will transport the bags to Niu de l'Àliga for runners to pick them up upon finishing the race.

The Organizer will not check the contents of the bags or whether they are properly closed. Therefore, the Organizer will not respond to any complaints about damage of bags or their contents, or for any loss of contents. It is recommended to not leave valuables or fragile items in the bags. Runners should ensure the bag remains closed at all times by reinforcing its closing (for example with a string or bridle).
